

Study Load/Credit Point Equivalency at Exchange Partner Universities

(last updated 1 May 2025)

The below table is a guide for School Advising Offices and students to determine study load and credit point equivalencies. This information is primarily for Undergraduate students and loads may vary for Postgraduate students. International students need to maintain a standard full-time study load of 24 credit points per semester to satisfy student visa requirements.

Note different terminology used by other universities:

- Units may be called any of the following: courses, modules, subjects or paper
- Credit Points may be called any the following: units, credits, credit hours or ECTS (European Credit Transfer System)
